THE LOTTERY MANIA OUT WEST.

Slick Capture of a Massachusetts Murderer.

VARIOUS EVENTS TOLD BY WIRE.

SUSPECT SAWTELLE CAUGHT. He Was All Ready to Go to Montreal When the Hand of the Law Struck Him.

PORTLAND, Mr., Feb. 13.-Isaac B. Sawtelle, wanted in Boston in connection with the mysterious disappearance of his brother Hiram, was arrested here this morning. He registered at the Falmouth hotel Monday evening under the name of J. Bridge, Dover. He attracted the attention of the clerk, who took him for a beat. Last evening the clerk read a description of Sawtelle and recognized the man. He notified the police and "Bridge" was placed inder surveillance. This morning when he left the hotel he went to the post office, got a letter, tore it up and proceeded to the Grand Trunk depot, where he inquired for a ticket to Detroit, but did not purchase it. He boarded the Montreal train and had taken a seat when he was arrested. He turned pale when taken into custody, but admitted that his name was

THE LOTTERY CRAZE, The Louisians Concern Does Not Want

a Franchise in Nevada.

Carson, Nev., Feb. 13.-So far as known there is no basis in fact for the report that the Louisians lottery, beaten in Dakota, will now seek to gain a foothold in Nevada. The Louisiana lottery has never attempted to secure a foothold here. When the last legislature met in 1888 the lottery put money into the fight to beat the introduction of the lottery scheme in Nevada, its object being to shut out opposition otteries. This is as much as the Louisiana company has tried to control Nevada on the lottery question thus far.

GONE CRAZY OVER THE LOTTERY. STILLWATER, MINN., Feb. 13.-The general discussion which has been going on regarding the attempt to ingraft the Louisiana lottery upon North Dakota has driven C. F. Bergstrom crazy. He imagines that he has drawn two prizes of $3,000 and $4,000, respectively, and is making a desperate effort to get his bogus

Miss Rose Fay, the bride that is to be, is the daughter of the late Rev. Chas. Fay, an Episcopal clergyman of Cambridge, Mass. He was a son of Judge Samuel P. Fay, also of Cambridge, a man of considerable note in his time. It is only about a year since the Rev. Chas, Fay died at an advanced age. Although he never made a permanent home in Chicago he had many friends here, having temporarily filled the pulpit of St. James Episcopal church several years ago. The family were members of this parish. Ten years ago several mem-bers of the family moved to Chicago, three laughters having formed one household until the marriage a few months ago of Miss Lily Fay, who is now Mrs. Wilmerding. The others were Mr. Norman Fay, formerly president of the telephone company and now holding the same position in the Chicago gas trust company; Miss Amy Fay, the accomplished pianist, and Miss Rose Fay. The latter three still form one family, residing at the present time at 433

Montana Estrays. PORTLAND, ORE., Feb. 13.-Three of Mon-

tona's democratic senators are now stopping in this city. Others are said to be at Pendleton. Offensive Language.

ATHENS, Feb. 13.-Advices from Crete state that many more judges and lawyers have resigned their judicial functions owing to the arbitrary order requiring legal proceedings in the courts to be conducted in the Turkish language and others are preparing to leave both the courts and the country.

Wall Street Today. New York, Feb. 13.-The improvement in the stock market made further progress this morning with the trusts, Louisville and Nashville and Rock Island in the lead. The opening was active and strong, first prices showing advances over last night's closing figures of 1/2. Sugar was the feature; opening steady it rose to 66% before the upward movement was checked. Lead was neglected, but cotton oil and Chicago gas rose fractionally, and among the railroad stocks gains of small fractions were the rule. Louisville and Nashville showed considerable activity and rose 3/4 per cent to 90%, but retired fractionally later. The marbecame quiet and prices receded all over the list, wiping out the early gains in many cases. At 11 o'clock the market was more active and heavy at about first prices.

Drank a Toast to a Horse.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Feb. 13.—The famous stallion Homer, owned by the Messrs, Jewett, died yesterday at their stock farm in this county of an internal complaint. Homer was sired by Mambrino Patchen. His death was announced at the National association banquet last evening and a toast in his honor was drunk in silence, Shot Through the Window.

PAWPAW, MICH., Feb. 13.-A flendish attempt to assassinate Dr. Marvin Fordyck was made Tuesday night at his home in Almena, ten miles from here. The doctor is sixty years old and a from here. The doctor is sixty years old and a bachelor. He was sitting at a table in his office hard at work, when suddenly the report of two gunshots rang out. The window was completely shattered and Dr. Fordyck fell to the floor apparently dead. The only occupant of the house with him was the hired man, who was in an adjoining room, and as soon as the choice ware fixed he range to Fordyck's side and found that both charges had entered his em-ployer's neck and shoulders. It was hardly thought possible for him to recover, but he possible for him to recover, but he alive last night. Officers are at work on the case, but have not yet found a clue. Albert A. Ferdyck, county surveyor and brother of Dr. Ferdyck, was arrested by Sheriff MacFarlan last night and lodged in jail on sus-picion of being connected with the crime.

Sir John On the Seal Question. OTTAWA, ONT., Feb. 13.-In parliament last night Sir John MacDonald said he discredited the report telegraphed from Washington that the United States government had decided to strengthen the fleet of cruisers in Behring strengthen the fleet of cruisers in Behring sea and to use more stringent measures during the coming season to keep Canadian sealers out of those waters. Negotiations were in progress which he had every reason for believing would result in a satisfactory solution of the Behring sea question very shortly.

mittees on judiciary, consisting of Senators Evarts, Hoar and Pugh and Representatives E. B. Taylor, Culberson and Rogers, today gave a hearing to a committee of the American bar association upon the bills intended to give relief to the Supreme Court and to facilitate the administration of justice.

The bar committee consisted of Henry Hitchcock of St. Louis, president of the association; Wm. Allen Butler of New York, Walter B. Hall of Macon, Ga., Edward Otis Henkley of Baltimore, secretary of the bar association; J. Hubley Ashton of Washington and Francis Rawle of Philadelphia.

DISTRICT CASES.

Before the gentlemen of the committee were heard, J. Reginald Fendall of Washington asked the committee to take no action upon the bills until the bar association of Washington should be heard upon the subject so far as it related to cases originating in the District of Columbia,

The members of the committee all argued in favor of the establishment of an intermediate appellate court as the best means of affording relief to both the Supreme Court and the inferior courts of the federal judiciary. This was said to be in harmony with the system of jurisprudence in all English-speaking countries and has been adopted by several of the states, notably New York. The division of the Supreme Court into sections to hear cases of the various kinds would not, it was argned, answer the desilk. The ushers were Messrs. Bassett, Clark | mand. As it is the court is forced to the utmost of human capacity and endurance. The only practical relief is in more judges.

THE WORK OF THE COURT. Mr. Hill presented an analysis of the work of

The arguments or statements of the committee covered the methods of procedure, basis and limitation of appeals, the power of Congress to regulate appeals and to establish the courts suggested and the practicability of the court to serve the purpose in view.

Flogged and Banished.

Anandale and Linconia, in Fairfax county. Va., have lately been suffering from a series of petty thefts, which continued to such an extent that some of the residents decided to take the law into their own hands. Henry Williams, a huge colored man who lived at Mount Pleasant, near Mrs. Jno. F. Waggaman will not be home to callers tomorrow.

Mrs. Agnes C. Moore and her daughter, Miss Daisy Moore, will hold their last formal reception of this season at their residence, 1752 M street northwest, tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 6, assisted by Miss Clements and Miss O'Neal of Indiana, Mrs. I. D. Farrar, was exhausted and begged for mercy. When they finally let him go it was with the admonition to leave the country at once, and this he did. It is generally supposed he came direct to this city.

A Wife's Suit for Divorce. Fannie M. Potter has by her counsel, Mr. J. Thomas Suthoron, filed a bill for divorce from John W. Potter. The bill states that they were married September 18, 1884, and lived together
